Procedure Review Checklist

Next steps:

Once you complete the above steps for each process, you are ready to assign your team and get them started on the process. Your next steps are to:

1. Assign responsibility for this process to a person or team (in your management team meeting)
2. Provide the team leader with information for completing tasks
3. Review the process and requirements with the team
4. Ask the team to complete the implementation plan and return to you for review
5. Use the Procedure Review Checklist as a guide as you review the plan, and as you review and approve the final implementation of the process
